

MATH110: College Mathematics II

This course is an advanced review of mathematical skills, including linear programming, fundamentals of calculus, and basic financial math. This course will help you develop math skills used in business applications and the decision-making process.

Credit Hours: 3