

CSA100: Computer Systems Architecture

This course will help students discover the concepts and essential skills necessary to administer operating systems, networks, software, file systems, file servers, web systems, database systems, system documentation, policies, and procedures.

Credit Hours: 3