

ACCTII200: Principles of Accounting II

A continuation of Principles of Accounting I and an introduction to the use of accounting information for management decision making. Specific topics include determining cash flows, international accounting, product costing, budgeting, and other concepts of management accounting.

Credit Hours: 3