

ITMS300: IT Management Strategy

This course focus on organizational issues related to information technology solves the issues strategically using different types of tools. Topics included but not limited to IT strategy formulation and business alignment; IT organization, structure, and governance, implementation and change management, organizational learning and knowledge management, and evaluation of IT impact on the organization.

Credit Hours: 3