

Health Insurance Specialist Career: Lesson 2

This lesson will present an overview of the daily tasks of the health insurance specialist career along with their necessary background, training and education. This lesson will identify career opportunities available in the health insurance field to students. It will also discuss the professional credentialing possibilities that accompany a medical billing specialist. Finally, students will learn how workplace professionalism will lead to career success.

Credit Hours: 25