

EBSUM300: E-Business Infrastructure Management

This course will help students explore the process of running a business on the internet and common course topics included but not limited to internet marketing, database management, and web design. This course will help students manage the strategic development of e-business based organizations and appropriate e-business technologies.

Credit Hours: 3