Computers in Law Offices : Lesson 2

This lesson includes identifying how computers are used, the various system components and software, and the ethical issues that computers bring to the law office.

Credit Hours: 50