

FMGT300: Financial Management

This course will help students learn the efficient and effective management of money (funds) in a manner to accomplish the objectives of the organization. It is the specialized function directly associated with the top management.

Credit Hours: 3