

IBUS400: International Business

This course will introduce students to a fundamental understanding of the socioeconomic political, cultural, and linguistic environment in which Multinational companies operate. This course utilizes an inquiry-based approach to understanding country level relationships in the Global Business Environment.

Credit Hours: 3