

MGDM400: Managerial Decision Making

This course is designed as a business decision simulation that offers students the opportunity to apply the knowledge efficiently they have acquired in previous courses (i.e. accounting, finance, marketing, human resource management) to face and solve real business problems in a competitive industry environment.

Credit Hours: 3