

PJMGPS400: Project Management: Principles of Strategies

Brand building is a very difficult task and hence it requires a strategic plan in advance. This is where Strategic brand management steps in. In this course, students will learn to take the brand equity of the company to new heights through sequential steps that add value to the brand and ultimately.

Credit Hours: 3