

AIST400: Advanced Internet Security & Threats

The course will cover the advanced topics in Internet and Network security to help students understand complex attack paths and countermeasures specific systems with different hardware/software components and architecture.

Credit Hours: 3