

HSCM400: Healthcare Science Management

This course provides the fundamentals of the organizational principles, practices, and pertinent management of health service organizations. The topics include quality improvement, risk management, strategic planning, financial planning and control, and medical ethics.

Credit Hours: 3