

HSPC400: Healthcare Systems & Policy

This course provides students with an in-depth understanding of organizational policies and financing of the U.S. health care system. The course will also include the social and economic factors underlying population health.

Credit Hours: 3